NATIONAL MUSEUM ★ UNITED STATES ARMY

A can't-miss museum about the story of America through the eyes of the American soldier

Construction on the National Museum of the United States Army is well under way at Fort Belvoir opening June 4, 2020. This 185,000 sq ft facility, located on 84 acres in Northern Virginia, will be a major tourist destination for veterans and their families, active duty military, school groups, performance groups, and the general public. The National Army Museum will appeal to adults and children alike, both civilians and veterans, with its rich variety of programs.

This Museum will be the first and only comprehensive history of the Army from the founding of the United States to the present.

Advanced ticketing options are under development for individuals and group tours. Formal booking requirements and tour information will be provided as program procedures are finalized.

NATIONAL MUSEUM ★ UNITED STATES ARMY

THE GALLERIES

The Fighting for the Nation Gallery includes exhibits dedicated to every major period in American history—Revolutionary War, Westward Expansion, Civil War, WWI, WWII, Cold War, and the Global War on Terror.

The Army and Society Gallery will be a standout feature of the Museum that explores the symbiotic relationship between the Army and the American people.

The Soldiers' Stories Gallery will tell the personal accounts of men and women, providing an invaluable perspective on how much our country owes to its Soldiers.

THEATER

Our 306-degree theater offers a multi-dimensional immersive experience to introduce you to the American Army.

SIMULATORS

A cutting edge simulation gallery that will transport visitors into Army experiences through the power of virtual reality, motion platforms, and state-of-the-art systems. Great for adults, kids, and families.

REMEMBER AND HONOR YOUR FAMILY

Honor the service and sacrifice of your family members and friends who served in the U.S. Army. Register their service history in our Registry of the American Soldier (armyhistory.org/the-registries), or purchase a commemorative brick (armyhistory.org/bricks) that will be installed along the Path of Remembrance. When you visit the Museum you will be able to find their Registry entry or visit their installed brick to remember their contribution to our nation and honor their service.

GIFT SHOP

The Museum store will sell National Army Museum, Army, and will sell National Army Museum and Army gear, souvenirs, and personalized items. The online store is already up and running: <https://shop.armyhistory.org>

EXPERIENTIAL LEARNING CENTER (ELC)

The Experiential Learning Center (ELC) will be a unique, state-of-the-art interactive resource center featuring geography, science, technology, engineering, and mathematics (GSTEM) educational programs. Perfect for kids, school groups, and corporate team building, the ELC will be complete with classroom space and simulated rescue mission activities.

COME HUNGRY

Add some extra flavor to your Army Museum experience with our lunch, snack and dinner packages. With quality, nutritious, and affordable meal selections, our elevated food will be as memorable as our programming.

EVENT SPACES

Need private space for events, activities or meals? The Museum will have both indoor and outdoor spaces that can accommodate your group, during or after Museum hours. Our in-house caterer will serve both the Museum café during operating hours, as well as any private meals for your group, that can be tailored to your budget. Whether you just want a private lunch for 20 people or want to host an elaborate dinner celebration for 350, we can help you put on a memorable event. Discounts on the rental fee are available for veterans groups, nonprofits, and members.

Contact emmy.french@armyhistory.org to learn more about hosting an event in one of the Museum spaces.

PARTNERSHIP OPPORTUNITIES

Please help us share the story of America through the eyes of the American soldier by making a donation.

Your contribution will allow for over 900 thousand annual visitors to experience the museum. To learn how to contribute/give, please contact our Philanthropy Department at david.cotter@armyhistory.org or (703) 562-4164
